TARYN A. MERKL, United States Magistrate Judge:

Wilmington Trust, N.A. ("Plaintiff") has started a federal lawsuit against Herman Segal. See ECF No. 1. You are receiving this notice as the named Defendant.

Plaintiff alleges, among other things, that you unlawfully concealed the death of Mrs. Lilly Segal in order to interfere with Plaintiff's rights under two relevant life insurance policies.

Plaintiff claims that you have received written notice of this lawsuit.

You are receiving this notice from the Court because you have not answered or otherwise responded to Plaintiff's allegations.

Plaintiff has asked the Court to enter a default judgment against you. Plaintiff has asked the Court to conclude that you do not oppose the allegations or disagree with the claims. This could lead to an order from the Court against you in the amount of tens of millions of dollars.

If you continue to fail to participate, the Court may grant Plaintiff's request and enter the default judgment.

A judgment is a public record with potential consequences, particularly if you do not cooperate with or pay the judgment. Plaintiff may be allowed to enforce an unpaid judgment through methods such as attachment, imposition of a lien, or garnishment.

Enclosed is an Order scheduling a Telephone Conference for April 28, 2022 at 10:30 a.m., to discuss Plaintiff's motion asking the Court to enter default judgment against you. You may participate in the conference by calling 877-336-1839 and typing in the access code 3914302. You may also have a lawyer appear for you.

On or before April 28, 2022, if you would like to inform the Court and Plaintiff of your views, including (1) whether you received notice about the lawsuit before this notice, or (2) what your factual or legal objections to Plaintiff's claims are, you may send a letter or statement to the Court and to Plaintiff's counsel, whose information is at the bottom of the page. If you did not receive a copy of the complaint, you may request one from Plaintiff's lawyer or the Clerk of Court. Any letter or statement to the Court should clearly identify the case name and number from the caption of this notice, and can be mailed or delivered to:
